A Note from Debbie

Hi All, I wanted you give you a progress report on how things are going since our decision to step back a little..... I began and soon realised, I was writing a novel.

In Brief, Rory & I took some necessary time out, and now the team appreciate the "darker" side of the job, Rory and I can welcome and enjoy the company of our guests more.For 30 years this job has been a way of life for me, but as circumstances change, both business and personal, so do your objectives. My passion for the job has been tested and decisions had to be made. Now with a broader distribution of responsibilities, I am once again having lots of fun.

The "Bar" has been raised (Not literally). The food coming from the kitchen is better than it has ever been. We do what we do and I am proud of it, and although occasionally we may get it wrong, we fix it. One route we intend to follow is promoting our 'Dinner Menu' to clubs and associations e.g. Rotary, Probus, Women's Guild. This in time will follow, but for now, it's all Xmas, Xmas, Xmas.

As a by the by, I felt our Sunday Lunch had become boring, lacked enthusiasm, but now with Home-made Yorkshires, Crispy Roast Potatoes, and our Roasts Meats back out on display, there will be little out there to compare.

I got to go; Amanda wants to send this out.

I felt I had lost direction for a while, for that I am sorry, there's so much more to say, so I might put in for a Monthly column.....

Speak Soon, Take care, Debbie
