

The Nags Head at Haughton Moss

Monthly Newsletter

Happy February to all.

For many in this trade January and February can be quieter months. In preparation for the busier times, this period helps everyone get a holiday or take time off.

And busier times are coming quickly.

Our decision to promote larger functions, and private party facilities have had an encouraging start. In February alone we have taken at least 6 bookings where the numbers exceed 20 persons, and many more which are between 10 and 20 persons.

This is a positive result for the team, and with bookings for our bowling green season also coming in, the decision to find another chef is underway.

WHO HAS THE JOB

There are five chefs currently in contention, they are all being interviewed and are working trial shifts. A decision is due in the next week or so, we will of course let you know what happens next month.

Debbie's Column

Issue No 3

I really don't have much to say this time, I want this column to be more personal, to pass on my thoughts about what we do as I genuinely see it and also to keep you up to date without it being salesey. So:-

I mentioned in my last column that many matters require attention. The front of the building is looking unloved and in need of repair. An establishment can be judged on first impression, and as it is looking tired, one might think we do not care. We definitely do care, but at present we do give out the wrong impression. As of Wednesday, work will commence on fixing this up, Alan and Rory will do some of the work, it will then be re-plastered by Mathew Horton, then Alan will repaint. Alan by the way is one of those much needed and appreciated behind the scenes full time employees, he has been our handyman and gardener for 8 years, and also worked at least 10 years for us at the Hanmer Arms.

We apologise in advance if any inconvenience is caused, everyone will do their work as quick as possible, it is hoped a steady flow of repair and improvement will continue thereafter.
